TWO FORMATS

Every dinner starts the same: You sign up, get matched with neighbors nearby, and prepare to host or bring a course. How the evening unfolds depends on how many people sign up in your area:

SIGNATURE

THE ROTATING DINNER

Our signature experience: Three homes. Three courses. Twelve new friends. Journey through your neighborhood as each course unfolds in a different home, creating an evening of discovery and connection.

- 6:00 PM - Starters at Sarah's place
- 7:30 PM - Mains at your home
- 9:00 PM - Dessert at Alex's terrace

✨ Perfect for adventurous foodies who love meeting lots of new people

INTIMATE

THE HOSTED TABLE

Intimate and cozy: Six people. One home. Deep connections. Settle in for the entire evening around one beautiful table, sharing stories and creating lasting friendships.

- 6:00 PM - Welcome drinks & starters
- 7:00 PM - Shared main course
- 9:00 PM - Dessert & lingering conversations

🍷 Ideal for those who prefer deeper conversations and cozy atmospheres

We'll let you know in advance which format your evening will follow. Either way, you'll meet new people, share great food, and experience something real.

★ Real Stories from Real Neighbors

LIFE-CHANGING CONNECTIONS

Don't just take our word for it. Here's how TableHop has transformed neighborhoods into communities, one dinner at a time.

"I moved to Sydney knowing nobody. Three months and four dinner parties later, I have a whole friend group! The rotating dinner format is pure magic - you never know what amazing people you'll meet."

Emma Chen
Bondi Beach, Sydney

"As someone who's usually shy at parties, I was nervous. But something about cooking together breaks down all barriers. I've learned to make pasta from an Italian nonna and discovered my love for Indian spices!"

Marcus Rodriguez
Fitzroy, Melbourne

"We've hosted six dinners now and each one feels like a mini vacation in our own neighborhood. Last week we had a wine expert, a baker, and a travel photographer at our table. Pure inspiration!"
